

2017 FULBRIGHT JUNIOR STAFF DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Call for Applications

The United States Mission is now accepting applications for the 2017 Fulbright Junior Staff Development Program (Foreign Student Program). This program will award grants to Ugandan university lecturers to pursue an advanced degree, non-degree, or research program in the United States. The Fulbright Junior Staff Development Program is designed primarily to strengthen African universities through higher degree training. Although core exchanges are with universities, candidates who are affiliated with other educational, cultural, or professional institutions may apply.

Eligibility Requirements

Successful applicants for the Fulbright Junior Staff Development Program must meet all of the following criteria:

- Be citizens of Uganda,
- Have a minimum of three (3) years of teaching experience at a university or comparable institution of higher learning and be committed to work at an educational institution in Uganda upon completion of the designated program,
- Possess at least a Bachelor's Degree,
- Be fluent in English,
- Have outstanding academic records, references and preparation in their chosen field,
- Have satisfactory required test scores (GRE, TOEFL, GMAT etc.), and
- Have high motivation and a serious commitment to completing the program within a specific time-frame and returning home immediately after the approved program.
- Applications must detail the applicant's specific area of intended academic emphasis within the broader discipline.
- Applicants seeking to pursue a Ph.D. must detail their intended research area and be prepared to submit a writing sample.

Application/Selection Process

All applications must be submitted using the on-line application forms at

<http://foreign.fulbrightonline.org/fulbrightpage.html>

Copies of certificates, transcripts and letters of recommendation should be uploaded onto each applicants online application. Only final nominees will be required to take the TOEFL and GRE tests after screening and interviews. We do not require test scores at this initial application stage. Applicants are free to attached score reports is they have them.

Applications must be submitted no later than April 7, 2016. All applications are reviewed by a local selection panel. Final nominations are reviewed in the United States by independent review committees. Final selection of awardees is made by the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board. While applicants can specify where they would like to study in the U.S., ultimate institutional placement for successful candidates will be made by the Institute of International Education (IIE). Awards and university placement will be announced in Spring 2017 for programs beginning in Autumn 2017. Only short-listed candidates will be contacted after review of the applications.
